The Virginia Firemen. The twentieth annual convention of the Virginia State Firemen's Association held two sessions in Richmond yesterday and witnessed as well the splendid show made at the annual inspection of ing made at the annual inspection the Richmond city department in afternoon. All the business of the body, was disposed of and Newport News was chosen as the next place of meeting. Richmond is crowded with delegates and visitors from all over the State, and the affair, which will last until tomorrow night, promises to be a great success.

One of the main features of the entire One of the main features of the entire proceedings was today's grand street parade, led by a large number of mount ed citizens, under command of Captain Morgan R. Mills, chief marshsi. Among the aides were Msj. W. M. Smith and Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city. The Alexandria companies were in the second division of the parade, headed by the Naval Gun Factory Band headed by the Naval Gun Factory Band and made a splendid showing, being applauded along the entire line of march.

At a meeting of the State Firemen's Association last night the following officers were elected: President, W. H. Stowe, Newport News; senior vice president, J V Perlev, Charlottesville; sta-tistician, J. H. Dwyer, Harrisonburg; secretary, George Commings, Ports-month; treasurer, J. T. Williams, Charottesville; chaplain, Rev. C. H. Smith, Richmond; chairman legislative commit-tee, J. H. Redwood, Richmond. The Alexandria firemen will return to their homes tomorrow night reaching here shortly after 11 o'clock, and will be me: at the depot by a large number of the "stay at home" members.

Petrified Body?

The cellar of the Carlyle House was the centre of attraction today from a report which spread over Alexandria to the effect that a petrified body of herculean proportions had been unearthed under this antiquated baronisl structure. der this antiquated paronisi structure.
Many persons threaded their way through the building and into the cellar where they were shown what is said to be the remains of a human being over seven feet tall. This object of curiosity is in what is known as the wine cellar of the Carlyle House and between the west (or front) wall and another a few feet high to the west. The head is intact and it is said that the other parts of the body are also well preserved. Glass had been placed over the remains when found and the crumbling earth partly obscured all save the head. The features resemble those of some pictures of Trajan, although nost people who inspected it were convinced that the remains are those of an Indian chief. This conclusion was reached from the fact that the origines generally acted on the principles which actuated the Israelites when they made Saul their king because he stood head and shoulders above other men. A certain percentage who viewed the supposed remains were sceptical, and suggested that they were placed where found comparatively recently Dr. Moore, the Coroner, was notified by Lieutenant Smith of the discovery of the sup-posed remains, and he will make an official suvestigation.

Birthday Party

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Theiner, of West End, was the scene last spread on the laws, and all the appoint-ments were of an inviting nature. The southern zephyrs prevailing at the time, pleasant feature to the occasion. After all had been satisfied the goasts repaired to the large double parlors where music and dancing were indulged in. The rated with palms and cut flowers, and the spacious lawn presented a handsome appearance lighted with Japanese lan-ters. After wishing the young lady many happy returns of the day, the guests departed, much pleased with their evening's enjoyment.

The New Electric Works.

Since the City Council disposed of the franchise for furnishing electricity to the city of Alexandria to E. R. Mandeville, of Philadelphia, some citizens have suggested that the authorities should exercise such surveilance in the construction of the new works and the stretching of wire as will assure perfect safety from the currents, in order that the dangers incident to electricity may be minimized. The current which the company propose to use in Alexaudria, will, it is said, be of a less dangerous nature than those furnished by the power houses of electric roads, and will be more satisfactory, from the fact that it will not be subject to variation. The authorities will doubtless see that everything is done satisfactory and in accordance with Patents Awarded.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week to citizens of this State of the following patents: Jacob Brauchli, of Hampton, T and angle square; James M. King, of Danville, trolley-wheel; James A. Mebane, of South Boston, ceiling-block and electric cut-out for incandescent lamps; James A. Mcbane, of South Boston, electric-ismp socket; Gurdon W. Merrell, of Roanoke, guardrail brace-plate; Thomas B. Rowen, o Alexandria, mail-crane and danger-sig nal; Zachariah L. Trainbam, of Rich-mond, window, and Edward H. Weaver, of Calverton, damper-operating device.

Says He was Robbed.

Claiming to have been robbed of $45 by a colored confidence man, James P. Grimsley, of Account, Fairfax county last night asked the police of Washington to aid him in recovering nine five dollar bills, of which he said he had been relieved in the grounds of the Smithsonian Institution. As a result, Edward Beard, colored, was arrested and locked up on the charge of larceny from the person.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of his morning: Buggie Bell and Mamie Morrison, both colored, arrested by Chief Goods and Officer Roberts charged with being disorderly, were fined $2.50 each.

Ann Russell, arrested by Officer Bell charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.

Malinda Levell, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with assault and beating Gertrude Reveil, was fined $5. Florence Plesent and Mary Johnson, both colored, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each. Frederick Williams, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with disorderly conduct, was fixed $5.

ieo. Diggs, colored, arrested by Officer Jones charged with being disorderly and fighting, was dismissed.

Joe Carrell, colored. arrested by Officers Bell and Henderson charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed. Carrie Carrell, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with being drunk Shot by Deputy Sheriff. John Holland, colored, forty-five years old, was taken to the Alexandria Hospital Tuesday evening in a critical condition as the result of a bullet wound said to baye been inflicted by Deputy Sheriff O'Connor, of Fairfax county, while attempting to serve a warrant upon Hol-land Tuesday night near Bailey's Crossroads, a few miles west of Alexandria. Holland was operated on early yester-day morning by Dr. Samuel B. Moore, assisted by Dr. Lewellyn Powell. The ball, of the 38 caliber size, entered the man's back and penetrated the liver, which was terribly lacerated. Holland will probably die of his injuries. It was stated that Holland had been wanted by the county authorities for some time, and that he resisted the effort of the deputy sheriff to arrest him.

Woman Fell in the Street.

Among the passengers who arrived here last night about 11:30 was a colored woman named Carrie Carroll. She slep all the way to this city, and was assisted from the train at King and Alfred streets. She later fell and it having been reported to the station house that a woman was lying in the street, Officer Roberts repaired to the scene. The officer was unable to diagnose the case, it appear-ing that she had been stricken with night of a most delightful gathering, the apoplexy and was in extremis. Mr. occasion being the 16th birthday of their Roberts called the Alexandria Hospital daughter, Jeannette. During the even-ing a sumptious and seasonable collstion was served. The tables were tastefully summoned and he soon discovered that the patient was suffering from cocaine

To Survey Potomac Shore.

The United States Coast and Geodetic Survey steamer Hydrographer will begin work in a few days at the mouth of the Potomac and will make an accurate description of the shore, with all prominent marks, the courses to be sailed in coming up and going down, the depth of water and all information of depth of water and all information of value. This information will be embodied in a new volume, which will shortly be issued by the Coast and fleodetic Survey. In addition to printed descriptions of the river, sketches of the shores on both sides will be made, and a panoramic view of the river will be included in the new publication.

Condition of the Potomac. The heavy rains of the past few days have again greatly swollen the Potomso and the river is now running back full.

At several places at and near Williams port the river has overflowed, but it is believed the water has reached its highest point, and by morning will begin to recede. The river at this place is still in its normal condition.

The Stray Elephants.

The bunt for Barlow's runsway elechants which had not been recaptured as eported, was continued yesterday by organized scouting parties in Alexandria county. One of the herd was retaken, the trail of the others being lost a thickly wooded section. "Tom" has been captured and fastened to two trees with ropes and chains in a ravine five miles west of Alexandria and seven miles from the park where the animals were ex-bibiting. At 10:30 o'clock Tuesday night, a telephone message stated that "Tom" had been caught on the Leesburg pike three miles west of Alexandris. This capture was effected about 8 o'clock and he was taken to the Hampton Stock Farm by Mr. Courtland Smith. 'lom' was chained to a tree and left in charge of a keeper over night, while Barlow and Superintendent Sweetwood returned to Alexandria for chains and saddle parties. Early yesterday morning they left Alexandria with a posse, but learned on arrival at Hampton Farm that "Tom" had broken loose at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning and disappeared.

Two hundred acres of Hampton Farm are thickly wooded, and it was there that "Tom," "Queenie" and "Jennie" were on a rampage. Scouting parties were sent through the woods in different di-rections, and caught sight of all three elephants several times during the morning. The beasts disappeared every time anyone approached within hearing distance in the thickets

The trail was repeatedly found and ost and it was not until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon that Tom was located by accident.

The two other missing elephants were last seen at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. At nightfall the scouting for them ceased and Barlow ordered the camp established in the hope that they would be attracted to the camp by Tom's trumpeting and scent during the night.

Luna Park.

A programme of unusual interest is being enacted at Luna Park this Week with the return of Phillippini's Spanish Band and the special engagement of Bar-low's herd of trained elephants from Coney Island there are attractions which have proved popular. The Spanish band has been materially improved since it was last heard at Luna Park and it is listened to with considerable interest. The antics of Philippini himself proved quite as great an attraction as his music. Senorita Garcia, a Spanish contralto of excellent voice and wide range, entertains the audiences with several tuneful Spanish ballads. The exhibition of the old door of the famous Libby prison which is on view at the scenic orium at Luna Park is attracting attention. The door is in a comparatively good state of preservation, but shows many signs of some pretty hard knocks. There are several new features slong "The Trail"

Today has been known as "Maccabee day" at Luna Park. It-was the occasion of the outing of A'exaudria Tent, No. 2, Knights of the Maccabees, of Alexandria An elaborate programme was arrange for nearly the entire day. The morning was taken up with some special events on the athletic grounds near the south ate. These events were followed by a base ball game between members of the Alexandria and Washington tents. There will be a number of brilliant features tonight.

Charge Against a Priest.

charged with having caused the death of Mile. Augustine Lange, who died at the priest's house last Saturday night.

The priest, with the assistance of the control of the c brother, carried the body to her father's house on Sunday. The authorities refused to grant a burial permit and an inquest was ordered

The abbe said that his only motive in having the body secretly carried from his house to the girl's home was to spare her character. The police, however, searched his garden yesterday and found evidence tending to show that the priest and his sacristan knew the cause of the woman's death. The arrest of the abbe and the sacristan followed Tais loosened the tongues of the vilagers. She was afficted with religious mania which created some trouble with her father. As a result of this she was sent to a convent in Marseilles last Qctober, She returned before Christmes and spent ait of Christmas night in the church without the knowledge of her father, who then sent her back to the convent. The girl returned to Fougeres on the eve of the Feast of the Assumption-August 14. The superior of the convent notified the abbe that the girl was coming and he met her at the sta-tion and took her straight to his house,

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 23.—The heaviest transactions thas far were in the Harriman stocks and steel common. One group of brokers sold fully 100,00 shares of Southern Pacific and Union Pacifi. This selling, which was only a part of the large bloc s supplied, was assumed by the room to be for strong inside interests. There is reason to believe that most of the selling orders came from the leading members of the prominent bears that were active in forcing sharp declines early in July and that the orders were given out in such a way as to conceal their real source. Strong Sturgis & Co., were the heaviest buyers of ateel common, taking 25,000 shares. Other stocks, including the Harriman issues, were taken persistently on scatt r d orders, but this scattered buying was large enough not only to absorb the heavy supply noted on the decline, but to take all the other orders on a later material advance. London bought 40,000 shares on balwace today.

Brokerage Concern Closes Business. M. J. Sage & Co., brokers, of Jersey City and New York, at the close of business hours yesterday posted a notice of their Jersey City office, informing their correspondents that they had discontinied business. This is the concern which is said to have bad Al Adams, the expolicy king and former convict, among its backers. It is one of the largest of a certain cross of syndicate brokerage con-cerns which have been publicly attacked recently. The Sage system consisted of a string of at 1-ast 300 branch offices, certain class of syndicate brokerage constretching from Maine to New Orleans, and in some quarters last night the fail-ure was declared to involve possiby $2,000,000. The firm had more then 25,000 accounts outstanding. It was learned last night that the managers of the firm had been appealing for several days to their principal financial backer for more money to tide over the crisis, but he decided not to make any further
